The Year 11 and 12 Hospitality students undertook their practical assessments on Friday last week and Monday this week. These assessments go towards their Certificate II in Hospitality (Kitchen Operations). The Year 11 students each prepared and cooked Chicken Schnitzel with Herbed chips. Through these menus they had to demonstrate safety and hygiene procedures in the kitchen.

The Year 12 students prepared a three course meal, which included an entrée - Thai Fish Cakes; a main - Beef Sirloin with Onion Jam, Jus and Potato Mash and a dessert which was Vanilla Crème Brûlée. Through these menus students had to demonstrate skills in catering, service, cookery methods and cleaning of kitchen equipment. They all did a fantastic job. Congratulations Hospitality Students.

Preschool Show & Tell

Charlie and Billy brought in their brand new puppy Sneaky to show as part of news time. They told all their Preschool friends about how old Sneaky is, the food he eats, where he sleeps and all the fun things they like to do together. We each took turns to have a little cuddle with Sneaky.

Stage 5 Brings Theatre Alive

This term Stage Five English students have been studying William Shakespeare. Over the past eight weeks we have looked at Elizabethan society, the language of Shakespeare, and obviously Shakespeare himself. Their assessment task, which they are all busily working on, looks at similarities between the Bard and themselves.

Last week, students dressed in costume to perform an appropriated version of Romeo and Juliet. All students enjoyed themselves and took part. Christian is missing from the photo as he was the official photographer. Crystal played Juliet, Sky her Romeo, Christian was Paris and Britney Lady Capulet. Special thanks goes to Aunty Rachel, who without rehearsal assumed a part.

NRL Legends Gala Day

Last Tuesday, Stephen and I went to Moree to play Rugby League Football at the NRL Legends Gala Day. We joined with students from St Joseph's Catholic School. We played our best and we both scored tries. It was a great day. Thanks to Mr Mal Hunt for giving up his time and taking us. Thanks also to Stephen for stepping up and playing at short notice.
